

Rock Mountain Family Campground

Experience the comfort and convenience of a camping cabin nestled in the woods of beautiful Rock Mountain Family Campground. You will benefit from a roof over your head and a bunk between you and the ground, yet enjoy the highlights of family camping such as outdoor cooking and dining, campfires, and the wonder of being surrounded by God's creation.

New in 2007, the 12' x 18' cabins include: 4 bunks and mattresses, (The 2 lower bunks can be slid together to form a double bed.)

table with 4 chairs, electric lights and receptacles, ceiling fan, and screened windows with mini blinds. Outside campers will find a porch with 2 chairs, picnic table, fire ring, water faucet, charcoal grill, and a short walk to the rest room.
